

The ISU National Assembly

Abbreviation:

NC – National Coordinator

NS – National Secretary

NA – National Assembly

NSU – Norwegian Students' Union

StL – Studentenes Landsforbund

National Assembly is the highest organ of ISU and carries out the working plans and realizes the budget.

National Coordinator (elected during the National Assembly) represents international students in Norway on the National meetings of NSU and StL, works on establishment of new ISU branches in Norway, coordinates the work of the ISU branches in Norway. Work closely with the NSU and StL on the national level on International issues; works with political issues; represents international students at the meetings with the ministries, parliament and political parties; takes part in International Committee of NSU and StL, prepares ISU National Assembly, reports on the work done by the National Coordinator between the NAs.

Vice-National Coordinator (elected during the National Assembly) functions as an NC in the absence of the NC (for the duties of the NC see above); helps with the establishment of ISU.

Vice-Vice-National Coordinator (elected during the National Assembly) functions as a VNC in the absence of the VNC.

National Secretary (hired person) who writes case papers for National Assemblies, takes care of ISU's correspondence, takes care of ISU's archives, arranges the meetings for the NC.

National Secretary is not a political position, all political decisions are made by the National Coordinator, if the issue is very serious the National board (which consists of the presidents of the ISU branches) has to approve and encourage the actions of the National Coordinator.

National Board consists of NC, VNC and representatives from the branches. President and a Vice-president of the local branch are representing the international students of their University. For the national Meeting the president is preparing the report about the work of its branch, which includes contact information of all the members of the branch, work they have done so far, financial report.
