The ISU Oslo team is wonderful. They are motivated, engaged and full of ideas.

The current budget is still unknown. We are currently negotiating with the studentparlament.

H) SUMMARY OF THE SEASON ☺

Since we have been elected as new ISU board of Oslo, we managed to organize following activities.

The international football lead by DAVID:

The international football hour was our first succesful attempt to offer sportactivities to all the international students. It takes place on saturday at domus atletica at 11.30. Due to the high interest, we plan to organize it on a regular basis through the hole year. In the winter, we have to find a new place due to the weatherconditions. But I am more than confident that we will handle it.

The first ISU party lead by MATTHEW:

Furtheron, we had our first ISU party in Amatøren which was more than succesful. About 200 people showed up and had a great night. The theme of the evening was perfect: tide and bright. Because of our new policiy using the budget in order to keep the beerprices low, we manged to have a full house. I stongly advise everyone to join this policiy. International students suffer under the high prices in Norway. This is especially valid for the alcohol.

Treview lead by JOANNE:

The academic review will be changed in a monthley edition. It will more focus on the interests of international students. We have the opinion that the previews academic reviews were to far away from the students concern. We will make it more pragmatic. The first edition is coming out next month. We organized one separately meeting a week for the review.

The trips lead by AUGMANTE:

We organize as well a trip to Stockholm and Riga in a few weeks. It will last 4 days. The aim is to give international students the option of visiting as much as they can for a good price. I am more than confident that we will manage this in perfect way.

Public relations through facebook lead by JAZZ AND LAURA:

One of the most important task is the contact between ISU and the international students through facebook. We communicate all the information using this network. It is easy to handle and very efficient. We communicate information about good bankconditions and other usefull infos through this way.

Flyerdesigner JAMES

He is in charge to promote on a friendly way all our activities. He is the creative part of our group.

My task is to help everyone wherever I can.

Sincerely yours

President Sven Rudolf Thorstensen
