

Constitution

The International Students' Union of Norway

October 2010 Edition

§ 1. Objectives

The International Students' Union of Norway (ISU) is an independent, democratic, non-profit, non-partisan student-run organization that is committed to the interests of all international students studying at institutions of higher education in Norway. ISU embraces diversity and welcomes all students to its activities and proceedings. ISU does not discriminate nor promote on the basis of race, religion, creed, gender, political or sexual orientation, marital status, physical or mental disability, language fluency, nationality or country of origin.

§ 2. Membership

A member of the International Students' Union of Norway is an organization at a tertiary institution that represents the interests of all the international students at that institution and has been accepted by two-thirds majority of the National Assembly. A new member branch will automatically receive full voting rights immediately after being approved by the Assembly. Member organizations may be called ISU Local Branches. ISU Local Branches must represent all the international students at its tertiary institution. It must be possible for any international student to run for a position on the board of an ISU Local Branch.

§ 3. Organization

§ 3.1: The National Assembly (NA) is the highest decision making body of ISU. The NA is responsible for the implementation and monitoring of the political platform, the adoption of the following year's action plan, the approval of the annual financial report, according to the budget applied for by ISU and the annual National report of the National Board. The NA has the mandate to give approval of the National Board work and release from any responsibility after the end of their mandate. The National Assembly will be chaired by a person with no active stake in ISU. If a neutral third party is unavailable to act as a chairperson for the NA, then the NA may elect a chairperson from among the delegates who is trusted to show no bias. Under such circumstances, that chairperson will lose his/her voting rights.

§ 3.1.1: The NA consists of:

a) Delegates with speech, proposal and voting rights: Two representatives from each ISU local branch and the all national board members. Voting representatives from each branch can be changed before and during the NA with written notification to the National Secretary.

b) Observers with speech and proposal rights:

- Committee members,
- ISU National Secretary,
- Representatives from potential member branches,
- Candidates for election to the National Board,
- One representative from Norsk Studentorganisasjon (NSO)
- One representative from ANSA (Association of Norwegian students abroad)
- One representative from Studentenes og Akademikernes Internasjonale Hjelpesfond (SAIH).
- One representative from Spire (Utviklingsfondets Ungdom)

With a simple majority, speech and proposal rights can be given and removed from one or more specific observers.

§ 3.1.2: The NA can decide when meetings or parts of meetings should be closed-door meeting (including delegates, the secretary, the chair and others when the situation demands) with an absolute majority vote.

§ 3.1.3: NA has the necessary quorum when 80% of the delegates are present. Simple majority decides NA's resolution. The number of voters in the room must be counted before the start of each round of voting. No voting delegates are allowed to enter or leave the room until the voting round is completed. If not in the room when discussions start, delegates will not have voting rights for that particular issue. The following procedures require a simple majority of the NA;

- Approval of NA's resolution or resolutions,
- Appointment of a Chairperson to the NA,
- Acceptance of the meeting schedule and agenda,
- Reopening a closed meeting schedule or agenda &
- Accepting changes made to the reopened meeting schedule or agenda.

§ 3.1.4: NA can, with a two-thirds majority vote, deny delegates their rights given to them in §3.1.1 if their branch has violated §§ 3.3.6. They will then get a status as "not elected" and are not included in the 80% quorum-demand.

§ 3.1.5: A vote of 50% or more gives the decision of the National Assembly. All extraordinary proposals that require a vote must be given in writing to the National Secretary.

§ 3.1.6: The National President calls for a National Assembly once each academic year. An extraordinary National Assembly can be called by:

- The ISU National Board according to article 3.2.2
- Two –thirds of the ISU Local Branch Presidents.

§ 3.1.7: The ISU National Board, according to article 3.2.2, calls for at least two or more Leaders' Meetings (LM) during each academic year where each ISU Local Branch sends one delegate to discuss issues and follow up on the Plan of Action. The LM have no decision making power over the NA, but the LM has the authority to dictate a plan of action that would be binding until the next NA. The NA will always have the authority to overrule the decision of the LM concerning the plan of action.

§ 3.2: National Board:

ISU National Board (ISU NB) is elected by the National Assembly to be its representative. ISU NB meets at least five times a year. The National Board shall consist of:
