

Constitution
The International Students' Union of Norway
September 2006 Edition

§ 1. Objectives

The International Students' Union of Norway (ISU) is an independent, democratic, non-profit, non-partisan student-run organization that is committed to the interests of all international students studying in Norway at institutions of higher education. ISU embraces diversity and welcomes all students to its activities and proceedings. ISU does not discriminate neither promote on the basis of race, religion, creed, gender, political or sexual orientation, marital status, physical or mental disability, language fluency, nationality or country of origin.

§ 2. Membership

A member of the International Students' Union of Norway is an organization at tertiary institution that represents the interests of all the international students at that organization and has been accepted by two-thirds majority of the National Assembly. Member Organizations may be called ISU Local Branches. ISU local branches must represent all the international students at its tertiary institution. It must be possible for any international student to run for a position on the board of an ISU local branch.

§ 3. Organization

§ 3.1 The National Assembly is the highest deciding level of ISU. It approves the Financial Report, and elects the ISU National Administration.

The National Assembly will be chaired by a person with no active stake in ISU. If a neutral third party is unavailable to act as a chairperson for the NA, then the NA may elect a chairperson from among the delegates who is trusted to show no bias. Under such circumstances, that chairperson will lose his/her voting rights.

§ 3.1.1 The National Assembly consists of:

a) Delegates with speech, proposal and voting rights: Two representatives from each local branch and the National President.

Voting representatives from each branch can be changed before and during the NA with written notification to the National Secretary.

b) Observers with speech and proposal rights:

- Committee members
- ISU Vice President
- ISU Alternate Vice President
- ISU National Secretary
- Representatives from potential member branches
- Candidates for election to the National Administration
- One representative from NSU
- One representative from StL

With a simple majority, speech and proposal rights can be given and removed from additional non-delegates.

§3.1.2: The National Assembly can decide which meetings are closed with an absolute majority vote.

§ 3.1.3 National Assembly has the necessary quorum when 80% of the delegates are present. Simple majority decides National Assembly's resolution.

The number of voters in the room must be counted before the start of each round of voting. No voting delegates are allowed to enter or leave the room until the voting round is completed. If not in the room when discussions start, delegates will not have voting rights for that particular issue.

The following procedures require a simple majority of the National Assembly:

- Appointment of a Chairperson to the National Assembly
- Acceptance of the meeting schedule and agenda
- Reopening a closed meeting schedule or agenda
- Accepting changes made to the reopened meeting schedule or agenda

§ 3.1.4 National Assembly can, with a two-thirds majority vote, deny delegates their rights given to them in §3.1.1 if their branch has violated §§ 3.3.6. They will then get a status as “not elected” and are not included in the 80% quorum-demand.

§ 3.1.5. Simple Majority decides the National Assembly’s resolution.

All extraordinary proposals that require a vote must be given in writing.

§ 3.1.6 The President calls National Assembly, usually once each semester. An extraordinary National Assembly must be called if:

- a) The President demands it
- b) Three quarters of the Local Branches demand it
